Pastor's Message

THE REV. JOSHUA SULLIVAN

Grace and peace to you from God our Source and our brother Jesus Christ.

As I write it is a wonderful Fall morning, and the windows and doors of the building on Shepard Avenue are wide open. Feeling the cool wind flowing through our gathering space reminds me that God's Holy Spirit flows through all our lives, even through the tough times. "Spirit" of course is the same word in the New Testament as "wind," and this wind from God fills us with faith, hope and love.

I am only in the very early stages of getting to know you all, but I thank you for your honesty as I've been talking with you so far. There has been a lot of hurt and loss, many hard things to bear, as your two beloved congregations have changed, cracked and transformed to become one new community. But as we know and believe, God is always doing new things—pesky, bothersome and exciting things! Myself included, we all can admit that new things are not what we would generally prefer. But in our baptisms we are given the gift of faith, of trust, that God in Christ is shepherding us through this and all hardships.

Speaking of the Holy Spirit... I was just re-reading (for no particular reason) Martin Luther's The Large Catechism. Published around 1527, this guidebook was written for heads-of-households and regular ol' church-goers at a time when Luther himself was a little discouraged about the state of the communities he helped guide in Germany. The Large Catechism was meant to be a reset button, a back to basics. And so I think it will also help us reset too, here in 2021, as we face a new Fall, a new school year, and a new year of gathering and learning together in new ways.

The portion I would like to share comes in his explanation of our confession of faith called the Apostles' Creed. At the end of the creed, in the third article about God the Holy Spirit, there is the phrase where we confess we "believe in the communion of saints." Luther explains in confessing this we say:

"I believe that there is on earth a holy little flock and community of pure saints under one head, Christ. It is called together by the Holy Spirit in one faith, mind, and understanding. It possesses a variety of gifts, and yet it is united in love without sect or schism. Of this community I also am a part and member, a participant and co-partner in all the blessings it possesses. I was brought into it by the Holy Spirit and incorporated into it through the fact that I have heard and still hear God's Word..."

(Pastor's Message ...)

As we journey together, remember we are members of one community, united in love. Christ the Good Shepherd is our little corner of this community. In your coming together as one people in Hamden, you have reflected God's own Holy Spirit, God's holy and refreshing Autumn wind, you could say. So, may all that you do, in all aspects of your work-lives, church-lives, and family-lives, as "co-partners" together with all your "variety of gifts," may it be a reflection of this love which unites us to each other and to God forever.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Josh Sullivan

Walk the Walk for Calumet

We did it!

We did it! Team Christ the Good Shepherd helped Camp Calumet surpass their goals for this year's Walk the Walk event. Our small but mighty team walked 1,194 miles, all to help raise funds for this crucial outdoor ministry that impacts so many lives. Over 1700 people (and pets!) across New England walked a total of 255,789 miles, making this Calumet's most successful Walk the Walk event yet!

Thanks to all of you who cheered us on and to those who contributed financially. We hope that you will consider joining our team next year! People of all ages and abilities are always welcome. Please enjoy these pictures of our team.
