Pastor's Message

THE REV. JOSHUA SULLIVAN

Grace and peace to you from God our beginning and our ending Jesus Christ,

April is a month of daffodils and tulips, of that reddish gray of new growth on trees and the smell of wet soil churning with life anew. May God grant us all the grace of experiencing the budding and growing of April in Connecticut in our spiritual lives as well as we celebrate the “Paschal Mystery” together as a budding and growing congregation!

But what is that thing called the “Paschal Mystery,” why not just say “Easter?” Well, in April this year we finish our 40 day Lenten journey, and we pass into the Three Holy Days of Maundy Thursday (April 14, 7 PM), Good Friday (April 15, 7 PM) and Holy Saturday, and then we are filled with shining joy on Easter Sunday morning (April 17, 10 AM).

If we want to get at the meaning of the “Paschal Mystery,” maybe a good place to start is the word. “Pascha” comes from the Hebrew word for Passover. In the very first Passover story in Exodus 12 the Israelite people have a very serious run in with death, just before they are liberated finally from enslavement. God gives them instructions to eat a special meal and to mark their doors with blood.

God said to Moses and Aaron,

“<sup>12</sup> For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the Lord. <sup>13</sup> The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you....”

The Gospels report that it is this ritual meal that Christ and his disciples are sharing the night before Jesus is handed over. But when we say “Paschal Mystery” it is more than us Christians just taking and reshaping the Jewish ritual meal for our own usage. Instead, we are talking about Jesus’ own “passing” through death and into new life, as well as our own “passing” from death to life in the waters of Baptism.

In case you were ever curious why there is a big, white beeswax candle with the year printed on it in our sanctuary... it’s called the “Paschal Candle!” And traditionally, each year, on the night of Holy Saturday, it is dedicated anew. You might have noticed this candle is lit on all the special days commemorating Jesus in our calendar, and also at all baptisms and funerals as well. This candle shines with the “The Light of Christ” explains our Episcopal siblings<sup>1</sup>

Indeed, this light and life is what “Easter” (a term which came into use later) is all about, but in an unshakable bond with all the other Three Days: Maundy Thursday and the celebration of the meal; Good Friday and Jesus’ real death and burial; and the special movement from Holy Saturday night into Easter Sunday morning. This all together is the “Paschal Mystery.” A wonderful, amazing, life-giving mystery that we are graced to share in by the waters of our Baptism, that we participate in every time we celebrate the Eucharist, and we are reminded of it at every funeral we hold in our sanctuary.

Pastor Josh

Successful Ash Wednesday Events Usher in Lenten Season

More than 100 people made their way to Christ the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church (CGSLC) on Wednesday, March 2, to receive ashes as part of a multi-congregational “Ashes-to-Go” event, marking the official start of the Lenten season. It was followed that evening by a memorable interdenominational Ash Wednesday worship service hosted by CGSLC, which included five clergy and members of their congregations from six Hamden churches, resulting in a near-capacity crowd.

“It was an incredible ministry of holiness,” Pastor Josh Sullivan said. “It was such a holy moment and I’m so grateful to have been part of it. I really felt gathered by God at the Ash Wednesday service. It just felt like God’s people in Hamden and the greater Hamden region were gathered together. It was really special.”

In addition to Pastor Josh, other Hamden clergy and congregations participating in the “Ashes-to-Go” event and interdenominational Ash Wednesday service were The Rev. George Manukas of Dunbar United Church of Christ; The Rev. Robert Bergner of Grace & St. Peter’s Episcopal Church and St. John the Evangelist Episcopal of Yalesville; The Rev. Jeremiah Paul of Hamden Plains United Methodist Church; and The Rev. Olivia Robinson of Mount Carmel Congregational Church.

Ashes-to-Go

For Christians, the imposition of ashes on their foreheads symbolizes repentance for sin as well as devotion to God.

“On Ash Wednesday, our foreheads are marked with ashes as a two-fold reminder,” Pastor Josh explained. “First, the ashes remind us that we believe that all false things will pass away, and second, and most importantly, the ashes help us confess that our true self comes only from God.”

On March 2, the opportunity to receive “Ashes-to-Go” was offered in a morning session at CGSLC from 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m., and in a lunchtime session, which ran from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Drivers who stopped for ashes drove their cars into the church parking lot, where clergy were stationed outside.

“It turned out to be very successful,” said Leo Goodrich, CGSLC Council Vice President, who helped organize the inaugural event. “More than 100 people received the ashes, and many were very grateful to us for doing that.” Other congregational members assisting with the “Ashes-to-Go” event were John Downs, Linda Ibsen, Sarah DeLong and Ruth Knollmueller.

Melisa Velez Vieira and her daughter, Izabella, pictured with Pastor Joshua Sullivan, were among those who stopped by to receive “Ashes-to-Go.”

Christ the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church Opens Shed to Collect Clothing

Cleaning out your closets? Now you can bring your used clothing donations to Christ the Good Shepherd. CGSLC has partnered with St. Pauly Textile Inc. to provide a wood-frame clothing drop-off shed, designed to give church and community members a uniquely clean, convenient, and well-cared-for option to donate their used clothing, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

St. Pauly Textile Inc. partners with a network of businesses and various organizations to distribute donated textile items locally, nationally, and worldwide, where they are ultimately re-worn by people who need them. CGSLC receives funding for donated clothing and has the option to use donations to serve community needs.

With over 1,100 clothing drop-off sheds in place, St. Pauly Textile collects over 100,000 pounds of clothing every day that ends up in approximately 44 different countries (including the U.S.). In 2021, the company collected and distributed more than 40 million pounds of clothing or about 80 million garments, which clothed an estimated 10 million people. The company was founded in 1996 and is an A+ rated member of the Better Business Bureau. To learn more about the company, visit the St. Pauly website at stpaulytextile.com.

Only accepted items: Clothing, shoes, belts, purses, blankets, sheets, curtains, pillowcases, and stuffed animals. No other items should be placed in or outside the shed. All items should be placed in strong, plastic garbage bags and double-tied tightly before placement through the opening in the side of the shed.

Please do not donate the following: Books, furniture, electronic items of any kind, toys (other than stuffed animals), pillows, household or kitchen items, rags or fabric scraps, etc.

Volunteer(s) Needed for CGSLC Clothing Collection Ministry

[Jesus said:] "... I was naked, and you gave me clothing, ..." Matthew 25:36 (NRSV)

We are in need of one or more volunteers who are interested in helping with our clothing collection and re-distribution ministry. This would involve a commitment of 1 hour or less (depending upon the number of volunteers) to maintain the St. Pauly clothing collection shed. The assignment involves checking inside the shed twice a week (one day can be Sunday morning) to clear the bags away from the intake chute, make sure all items are in tightly-closed, non-ripped plastic bags, and removing any non-allowable items.

Please contact Leo Goodrich by email (leo.d.goodrich@gmail.com) or phone (203-710-4981 [cell - call or text] or 203-287-9748 [landline - call only]) with any questions or to volunteer.

Lenten Giving to Support Eastern European Relief Efforts

Given the growing humanitarian crisis in Ukraine and the surrounding region, our congregation is asked to consider directing their Lenten giving this year to Lutheran Disaster Response.

Lutheran Disaster Response is working with companion churches in Ukraine, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia, as well as ecumenical partners such as Lutheran World Federation and Church World Service, to provide refugees with immediate support and supplies, such as food, blankets, water and hygiene kits.

While we have traditionally supported the ELCA World Hunger Appeal through our Lenten offering (as announced in the March issue of "The Messenger"), this year our congregation will support relief efforts in Eastern Europe instead. Your gifts designated to "Eastern Europe Crisis Response" will be used entirely (100%) to provide support for people impacted by conflict in the region.

To donate toward our congregational effort:

- Write a check to Christ the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church for any amount, and indicate "Eastern Europe Crisis Response" in the memo line. On the outside of your envelope, be sure to indicate the amount of the donation on the "Other" line and place your envelope in the offering plate; or-
- Submit or send a separate check by mail to Christ the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 600 Shepard Ave., Hamden, CT 06514, indicating "Eastern Europe Crisis Response" in the memo line.

For more information about Lutheran Disaster Response, visit the ELCA website at elca.org/disaster.

Lutheranism Course

Interest has been expressed to Pastor Josh regarding a course on Lutheranism. Pastor plans to begin a discussion group on Thursday, May 5, at 7pm. It will be held in person at the church as well as via Zoom. If you wish to attend via Zoom, please call the church office and leave your name or speak to Pastor Josh.

Personal Hygiene Drive Continues through April 10

- * Feminine Hygiene Products
- * Shaving Razors/Shaving Cream

Holy Communion continues.

The communion elements are prepared by our altar guild with masks and gloves. If you are not comfortable removing your mask to receive, come forward with arms crossed for a blessing. Please wait at the first pew in the center aisle, and allow the person in front of you time to receive both bread and wine before you come forward for bread.

A Service to Remember

To top off a successful Ashes-to-Go event, nearly 80 people turned out for the interdenominational Ash Wednesday service, which included moving pastoral reflections and a rousing musical rendition of "I'll Fly Away" led by all five clergy. During a freewill offering, nearly $700 was collected for Columbus House, whose mission it is to serve people who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless.

"Ash Wednesday isn't usually a joyful service, but we gathered together six churches with five ministers and marked the beginning of Lent," Pastor Josh said. "It was an incredible service. If you weren't able to attend, I invite you to watch the service on Facebook Livestream, if you can." By Sunday evening, March 6, the interdenominational Ash Wednesday worship service had nearly 100 views.

The Hamden Interdenominational Clergy Band leads a rousing rendition of "I'll Fly Away."
