Pastor's Message

THE REV. JOSHUA SULLIVAN

Grace and peace to you from God our beginning and our ending Jesus Christ, “Alleluia! Christ is risen. Christ is risen indeed.

Alleluia!”

We proclaimed this amazing and baffling truth on our first Easter Sunday together! And what a joy it was (despite absences due to Covid, both mine and others...) to journey through Passion/Palm Sunday, to Maundy Thursday and Good Friday, and finally to the brightness of Easter morning. Thank you again to all the leaders who stepped up, said yes, read, prayed, arranged, cleaned, played, beautified and helped make these Holy Days as wonderful and faithful as they could be.

But the reality is that as April turns to May this year, keeping the world-changing truth of Jesus' Resurrection close to our hearts is a serious challenge. It is especially hard with the news of Ukraine in the background, with the ongoing reality of racial inequality and the constant drag of Covid—and certainly it's tough to stay cheery once all the brightness of Easter morning and the smell of the lilies has faded. How do we make the Resurrection a part of our everyday lives?

Well, that is the beauty of the “Easter Season,” which is the 50 days (including 6 Sundays) that stretch from Easter until Pentecost on June 5th. In these days we hear stories of God's people encountering the gentle, compassionate and altogether transformed Risen Christ. Thankfully, these stories show us God's people not getting things quite right, mis-seeing and mis-reading. And these stories also show us God's people being worked upon by God all along, by the Risen Christ who journeys with them.

As you heard on the Second Sunday of Easter, part of what the Risen Christ does in the Gospel of John is “breathing” on the disciples, and saying to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.” God is indeed always working on us, and that work we call the Holy Spirit. As part of my own prayer-life I sometimes use a version of the Roman Catholic “Book of Hours,” which is a guide for daily prayer, both personal and communal. This particular Book of Hours was published in 1993. As a prelude to the prayers for Wednesday it says something that is very important for us to remember about God the Holy Spirit:

On Wednesday we find the person who walks courageously because they are certain that God is everything and is merciful. This is why “My heart and flesh ring out their joy to the living God.” My whole life belongs to Christ: “You are God's temple. The Spirit of Christ dwells in you.” The Spirit is what makes us perceive God in the life of the senses, it enables us to experience God. The Spirit is the principle whereby God, who is invisible, becomes perceivable. How does this happen? God makes God's Presence felt when all creatures are perceived as signs.

And so I pose these real questions to you all:

- How and when has the Holy Spirit been working on you in our past 8 months together?
- Where have you seen God? What parts of creation have helped you to see Christ?
- How has the Spirit of the Risen Christ been working on our congregation and our greater communities?

Thanks for Supporting the Personal Hygiene Drive

Fourteen bottles of body wash, 27 bars of soap, 50 toothbrushes, 35 tubes of toothpaste, along with bottles of shampoo and conditioner, moisturizer, deodorant, antibacterial soap, razors, shaving cream and an assortment of paper goods and other hygiene products were among 232 items collected during our Personal Hygiene Drive at Christ the Good Shepherd Lutheran.

The donations, which were collected over a five-week period during Lent, will benefit those served by New Reach Life Haven Shelter, an emergency shelter for single pregnant women and single women with children in the New Haven area. The drive concluded on Palm Sunday and the donations were delivered to the shelter on April 12. Thanks to all who participated!

These are not just rhetorical questions! I would like to actually hear from you: email, call, take me aside after worship. And if you believe God has given you the courage, then I believe it is time for us to share these stories together—on Sunday mornings. Let's celebrate the Resurrection this Easter Season by telling how the Holy Spirit is giving us the ability to feel and to know God.

In Christ,

Pastor Josh

Calling all Friends of Calumet!

Please join our congregation's team for Calumet's Walk the Walk fundraiser!

We welcome people of all fitness levels. There is no set amount you need to walk, and absolutely no judgment. We simply want everyone to have fun, get some exercise, make new friends, and help Camp Calumet.

The event runs from July 1 to August 31, and all you have to do is keep track of your activity as best you can and periodically report your miles to our team captain- Cyndi Hansard. We also hope to organize some group walks, but these would be completely optional.

Registration opens on May 15, and it only costs $25 to participate. You even get a Walk the Walk t-shirt as part of your fee! Last year our team consisted of 7 humans and 1 dog. We would love to double our numbers this year, so please join us!

Go to www.calumet.org/walkthewalk2022 for more info, and contact team captain Cyndi Hansard with any questions.

Council met on April 27. The meeting commenced with discussion on the following questions.

"How has the Holy Spirit been working on you in our past 8 months together?"- Dealing still with COVID in our lives; war in Ukraine-history repeating itself; God is evident in people helping others through this. "How has the Spirit of the Risen Christ been working on our congregation, and our greater communities?"- Through all the workings of our church in the community.

Council welcomed guest speaker, Susan Brown, who runs the Purple Pantry Box. She talked of the outdoor pantry boxes that are currently in 12 locations in Bridgeport, West Haven and Milford.

Financials- Giving on Ash Wednesday totaled $639 which was donated to Columbus House. Total contributions for March show a slight increase over that of last year.

Evangelism- Rob prepared a list of ideas for future events for council to review.
